

Step 2: Testing

□ Based on the result of step 1 which consists of a statistical model, we try to make predictions of the responses based on newly observed values for the predictor variables.

